Registered office: H-1113 Budapest, Bocskai út 77-79. Building B 3rd floor

Working hours: Monday-Friday 9 am – 5.30 pm

b) by post (to Jet Travel's registered office)

c) via fax (+36 1 209 2111)

d) via email (jettravel@jettravel.hu)

2. INVESTIGATION OF COMPLAINTS

Jet Travel shall investigate verbal complaints without delay and remedy them as necessary.

If the client does not agree with the settlement of the complaint or if the immediate investigation of the complaint is not possible, Jet Travel shall draw up minutes about the complaint and its position related to the same without delay and shall

a) hand over a copy of the minutes to the client on the spot in case of verbal complaints,

b) deliver the copy of the minutes to the client when it sends its substantial reply at the latest in case of complaints filed verbally or through other electronic telecommunications service.

All complaints shall be investigated by taking into consideration all relevant circumstances.

Jet Travel hereby informs the clients that it will greatly facilitate the investigation of complaints if the client can support his/her complaint with photos and documents (record taken on the spot by the tour guide or, in the absence thereof, a service provider).

In the complaint, the client may request a specific form in which he or she expects a reply to his or her query.

Jet Travel's colleagues shall investigate complaints and remedy them as necessary.

Minutes shall be drawn up about all incoming complaints, which shall include at least the following details and statements:

a) client's name

b) client's address, registered office

c) date, place and method of complaint filing

- d) detailed description of the client's complaint
- e) list of documents, instruments and evidence presented by the client
- f) Jet Travel's statement about its position related to the client's complaint, in case the complaint can be investigated immediately
- g) name of the person drawing up the minutes
- h) signature of the person drawing up the minutes and, except for verbal complaints filed over the telephone or through other electronic telecommunications service, signature of the client
- i) place and date of minutes
- j) serial number of minutes

Jet Travel shall deliver a substantial reply to incoming complaints within 30 days, in which Jet Travel may affirm the complaint partially or in full and act in order to remedy the same, or may reject the complaint upon adequate reasoning.

In the event the query does not contain sufficient information for the substantial investigation of the complaint, Jet Travel shall contact the complaining party in order to complete all missing information.

3. MANDATORY INFORMATION RELATED TO DISPUTE RESOLUTION AND LEGAL REMEDIES

In the event the client does not agree with the reply received to the complaint, or wishes to submit additional information or documentation, the client may request Jet Travel to revise its decision on the complaint through any of the contact details set out in clause 1. In such case, Jet Travel shall investigate the complaint again and treat the query as a new complaint.

In case of the breach of consumer protection regulations, if the above dispute resolution procedure failed and other legal conditions are met, the client may contact the competent consumer protection authority. The government offices shall act as consumer protection authorities, the contact details of which are available at the following link:
<https://kormanyhivatalok.hu>.

In case of a consumer dispute, the client may contact the conciliation board competent according to the client's permanent or temporary address as listed below.
